Social Foundations Courses
(SOCFOUND)

Courses

Relationship of schools and American society from sociological, historical, philosophical, political, and economic perspectives. Focus on central characteristics of the educational system and influence of these on teachers as professionals and teaching as a profession. Prerequisite(s): junior standing. (Fall, Spring, Summer)

Education as a formal institution; emphasis on the historical antecedents which have affected education in Western Culture and America. Prerequisite(s): junior standing. (Variable)

SOCFOUND 4234/5234. Philosophy of Education — 3 hrs.
Analytical study of major philosophical viewpoints of modern education, emphasis on professional problems of education and the development of educational principles. Prerequisite(s): junior standing. (Variable)

Prerequisite(s): consent of department. (Variable)