Childhood Diversity and Learning Graduate Certificate

Childhood Diversity and Learning Certificate

This graduate certificate provides background on the development of children from birth through grade 3, the intersectionality of diverse characteristics of families, and the community's role in shaping young children’s development as they negotiate the natural world and early learning environments. This certificate may be stacked into the MAE in Transformative Education.

Required:

EDPSYCH 3109/5109	Development and Assessment of Young Children	3
ECIE 6210	Diversity in Early Childhood Education: Theory and Practice	3
ELEMECML 5120	Child, Family, School, Human and Community Relationships	3
Total Hours		9

Related Programs

- Early Childhood Education M.A.E.
- Transformative Education M.A.E.