Music Courses (MUSIC)

Courses

MUSIC 1100. Soundscapes: Music in Culture — 3 hrs.
This course will examine representative works from selected musical traditions in their cultural, historical, and stylistic contexts. Students will cultivate listening skills and music analytical vocabulary to better identify, understand, and communicate about the musical experience as expression of meaning and purpose. (Fall, Spring, Summer)

MUSIC 6299. Research.
Guided independent research leading to significant project, research paper or thesis. Prerequisite(s): consent of department. (Variable)